

sho, and three brothers, Lewis Hammers of Neosho, Chas. Hammers of route 5 and Sam Hammers whose home is in California.

Mrs. Liebhart was retiring by nature, but so kindly and sympathetic that her helping hand was ever ready with aid for those who needed it. And so quietly did she do her acts of kindness that only those who received them knew. She was deeply devoted to her husband and children and her friendships were sincere and wholehearted. The church was filled to capacity with sorrowing friends at her funeral today and great quantities of flowers bespoke the esteem in which she was held.
