January 1st, 19 26.

Medical Examiner's—~~Coroner's~~—Report.

I, the undersigned M.M. Scarbrough, Medical Examiner having notice of the death of Clemente Vene,
a white male about 47 years old, late of the town of New Haven, New Haven County, State of Connecticut, who on the 1st day of January, A. D. 19 26 came to a sudden, violent and untimely death—~~was found dead~~ in the town of
New Haven, New Haven County, State of Connecticut, and having viewed the body of said deceased, and made immediate inquiry concerning h is death, do hereby certify that said Clemente Vene,
died in—~~was found dead~~ the town of New Haven,
on thelst day of January, 1926,
from suicidal bullet wound of the head.

Deceased, single, divorced, resided alone at 164 Frank street, and was employed as a grave digger at the St. Lawrence Cemetery.

About 12.45 P.M. Consetta Cacace, residing on the first floor, heard a pistol shot in the rear hallway. She found deceased lying on the floor dying. Capt. Lyons and M Powers of the Howard avenue police station arrived shortly afterwards. Beneath the body of deceased and near his right hand was a .38 calibre revolver containing one empty and four loaded cartridges .

There was a bullet wound of the right temple. There were powder burns and a bullet hole in deceased's hat and powder burns of the right ear. It is said that deceased had become despondent because of differences with relatives.

The following valuables were taken possession of and are handed herewith. 1 $5. fold piece, $82.72 cash, 6 cartridges, 1 empty shell, 2 purses 1 knife,, 1 revolver, 1 seal ring, 1 pin, 2 keys, 1 token, 1 policy National Relief Assurance Book., 1 Young Peoples 20 year Endowment Policy, 1 receipt book, 1 receipt, 4 promissory notes.

I am satisfied that the said death was not caused by the criminal act, omission, or carelessness of any other person or persons, and that an inquest is unnecessary. In accordance with the statute I have delivered the body of said deceased to relatives, P.Torello, for burial.

Dated at New Haven, Conn., this 3rd day of January, A. D. 19 26
