

MRS. CHAS. LIEBHART
DIES AT HER HOME

Mrs. Emma Mae Liebhart, 65, wife of Charles Liebhart, well known Neosho cocntractor and builder, died at her home, 328 W. Brook, Tuesday afternoon after a long illness. Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church, the Rev. Wm. Cady conducting the rites, and burial made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mrs. Liebhart has lived in and near Neosho all her life. She was born to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hammers, Feb. 27, 1873, on a farm southeast of town. When she was a child the family moved to the community northwest of here which has borne the Hammers name for many years. The children were reared there and this daughter remained with her parents until her marriage to Chas. Liebhart in 1895. They established a home in Neosho and have lived here continuously since. They were the parents of two daughters, Charlotte, now Mrs. Roy Holt, and Mildred, now Mrs. Edward McCartney, both of Joplin. Also surviving are a grandson, Nathan Holt; two sisters, Mrs. Anna Baughman of Joplin and Mrs. Troy Buckey of Neo-
